A Taste of the ... '50s

"We opened our diner with one thing in mind: serve only quality food, give great service and let customers enjoy it all in a nostalgic setting taken from the good old days of the 1950s. Back then, you could understand the words to the music, waitresses were plain friendly and cars had big V-8 engines. Best of all, burgers, fries and shakes were made as tasty as possible, not as fast as possible. To recapture it all, sit back, relax and let me serve you the delicious taste of the '50s all over again." The Best of Food, Before Fast Food Rogu
